

Alice Osburn is the Chief Attorney who supervises the division that prosecutes crimes; involving sex offense and domestic violence.

Ms. Osburn graduated from the University of Kansas with a BA in English in 1989. She earned her Juris Doctor degree from Washburn University in 1992, and has practiced law since that time. From 1999 to 2002, she was a trial attorney assigned to the sex crimes unit in the Office of District Attorney Nola Foulston. Ms. Osburn was responsible for the prosecution of sex crimes against all ages of victims, domestic violence cases and child abuse cases. She also prosecuted juvenile offenders. Before returning to the District Attorney's Office in 2016, Ms. Osburn was a criminal defense attorney representing indigent clients in Wichita. She is also licensed to practice law in Texas and Colorado.
