FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Sedgwick County Election Commissioner and Secretary of State Ron Thornburgh To Provide and Update at Board of Sedgwick County Commissioners Meeting

(Sedgwick County, Kansas) – Sedgwick County Election Commissioner Bill Gale and Secretary of State Ron Thornburgh will present an update to the Sedgwick County Commissioners regarding Advance Voting options and polling locations at their regular scheduled meeting tomorrow, July 12, at 9 a.m. The meeting will be held in the BOCC Meeting Room, third floor of the Sedgwick County Courthouse, 525 N. Main, Wichita.

Advance Voting is available to all registered voters in Sedgwick County. Whether you will be out of town, or just want the convenience of voting in your home, you can complete an Advance Voting Application, available by calling 660-7100, or online at www.sedgwickcounty.org to have a ballot mailed directly to you. Or, for your convenience, you can vote early at one of the Advance Voting Polling Locations!

The Election Office is now accepting Advance Voting Applications for the August 1 Primary Election. Ballots for the August Primary will be mailed beginning July 12, and can be turned in to the Sedgwick County Election Office, until noon, July 31, or at your regular polling location until 7 p.m. on Election Day. In person Advance Voting will take place at various locations from July 19 - July 31.
