

Kim T. Parker is the Chief Deputy District Attorney. Her main duties involve administrative oversight of all Assistant District Attorneys and supervision of the charges filed in all criminal and juvenile cases in the 18th Judicial District of Sedgwick County. Ms. Parker's career has been dedicated to the prosecution of violent crime with a focus on crimes against children. Her trial work has included the prosecution of Dennis Rader and Jonathan and Reginald Carr.

Ms. Parker completed her undergraduate degree in political science from the University of Kansas and her Juris Doctor degree from Washburn University. She has been with the Office of the District Attorney for 30 years. Ms. Parker has received numerous national and local recognitions for her outstanding service, including an award for Outstanding Prosecutor of the Year by the Kansas County and District Attorneys Association, the National Parents of Murdered Children Father Czillinger award for her dedication to victims of crime, the National Business and Professional Women's Woman of the Year; the Wichita Crime Commission, Criminal Justice Professional of the Year, the Government Attorneys in Capital Litigation award for Outstanding Advocacy in a Capital case, and the National District Attorneys Home Run Hitter award. Since 2001 she has served as an Associate Director on the National District Attorneys Association Board of Directors. Ms. Parker currently serves on the Kansas State Child Death Review Board and has served the Kansas Legislature on the Criminal Code Recodification Committee.