

Tom Weilert is a Chief Attorney who supervises the General Trial Division. He also handles the Initial Assessment Docket which is designed to move lower level cases through the judicial system more quickly by allowing defendants to take responsibility for their actions. The IAD procedure achieves closure for victims without undue delay. Mr. Weilert also coordinates training and continuing education for all prosecutors in the office.

Mr. Weilert completed his undergraduate degree in Political Science from St. Louis University and his Juris Doctor degree from Kansas University School of Law. Mr. Weilert has been a prosecutor for 21 years. Mr. Weilert is a member of the National District Attorneys Association (NDAA), the Kansas County and District Attorneys Association (KCDAA), the American Bar Association (ABA) and the Wichita Bar Association. He has made presentations at numerous National District Attorneys Association Courses; designed, instructed and supervised courses at the National Advocacy Center; and, presented to the Kansas County and District Attorneys Association, the Tennessee District Attorneys General Conference, the West Virginia Prosecuting Attorneys Institute and the Wichita Bar Association. Mr. Weilert received the National District Attorneys Association Dean's Award for Excellence in Prosecution Education.