- During the month of March Sedgwick County Developmental Disability Organization (SCDDO) Quality Assurance Staff completed 5 day and 20 residential program visits.
- SCDDO participated in Network Sedgwick County, an event co-hosted by the Kansas Department of Children and Families and the Sedgwick County Health Department. The goal was to facilitate collaboration and resource sharing among service providers who are focused on child and family well-being. Seventy local organizations participated.
- The SCDDO has been working to ensure families know about the intellectual/developmental disability (IDD) service system and how to get on the wait list for services. So far this year, SCDDO staff have attended transition fairs or events for the Catholic Diocese, Maize, Goddard, Valley Center and Wichita Public Schools.
- Special Projects Coordinator, Cheyenne Roney, presented on a panel as part of the Sedgwick County Individual Justice Plan Training March 29th. Individual Justice Plans, or IJP's, are a personalized guide for what works best for an individual with IDD and/or a mental health disorder who have exhibited a pattern of escalating behavior and have an elevated risk of justice involvement. A total of 172 community partners participated in the training.
