

Boyd Isherwood is the Deputy District Attorney who oversees the Appellate Division of the Office of the District Attorney which handles all appeals to the Kansas Court of Appeals and the Kansas Supreme Court. In addition, Mr. Isherwood also supervises the "Post-Conviction Unit" which handles appellate issues that occur at the District Court level.

Mr. Isherwood received his undergraduate degree in Psychology from Drury University (Springfield, Missouri) and his Juris Doctor degree from Washburn University School of Law where he was a published member of the Washburn Law Journal. He has been an attorney with the DA's Office since October of 1999. Mr. Isherwood is a member of the National District Attorneys Association (NDAA), the Kansas County and District Attorneys Association (KCDAA) and the Wichita Bar Association. He has presented to the Wichita Bar Association and the Kansas County and District Attorneys Association.