

Aaron is a Deputy District Attorney in the Eighteenth Judicial District of Kansas and has been with that office since joining the Bar in 2001. In that time, Aaron has prosecuted approximately 130 jury trials for crimes ranging from DUI to 1st Degree Murder. As Deputy District Attorney, Aaron serves as Legal Counsel to the District Attorney and generally oversees the administrative responsibilities of the Office. He continues to participate in the Office's review and prosecution of automobile crashes that result in death or serious injury, amongst other serious cases. When his work schedule permits, Aaron testifies on traffic and other criminal legislation and assists in the training of law enforcement and fellow prosecutors in the areas of crash scene investigations and ethics. He also serves on a variety of boards and committees concerning criminal justice efforts locally and across the State, including serving as the Secretary of the Sedgwick County Community Corrections Advisory Board.

Aaron earned his Law degree from the University of Kansas in 2001 and his Bachelor of Science degree in Speech and Political Science from Kansas State University in 1998.

Aaron enjoys spending time with his colleagues in the law and has gained many friends (most notably his wife, Joni) through his involvement with the Wichita Bar Association. Aaron served many offices within the Wichita Young Lawyers Association, including President from 2005 to 2006, served on the Wichita Bar Association's Board of Governors from 2013 to 2015, and recently completed his term as the WBA's President in June 2023. He continues to serve on the WBA's Criminal Practice Committee.

Aaron also is very active in his support of the Arthritis Foundation, having had Juvenile Rheumatoid Arthritis as a child. Aaron participates in the annual Jingle Bell Run and is a former member of the Arthritis Foundation's local, regional, and national boards of directors.

Aaron serves his church as a lector and is a former chair of the Parish School Council. He is an Eagle Scout, former Scoutmaster for his church's troop, and was recently appointed committee chair for the White Buffalo District of the Boy Scouts of America's Quivira Council.

Aaron is the proud father of two children and is glad to talk/boast about them when given the opportunity.
